PUBLISHED User's Guide WORD

Sta In order to assist both the legal profession and the layman in obtaining the maximum benefit from the Mississippi Code of 1972 Annotated, a User's Guide has been included in the main volume. This guide contains comments and information on the many features found within the Code intended to increase the usefulness of the Code to the user.

Annotations

Case annotations are included based on decisions of the State and federal courts in cases arising in Mississippi. Annotations to collateral research references are also included.

To better serve our customers by making our annotations more current, LexisNexis has changed the sources that are read to create annotations for this publication. Rather than waiting for cases to appear in printed reporters, we now read court decisions as they are released by the courts. A consequence of this more current reading of cases, as they are posted online on LexisNexis, is that the most recent cases annotated may not yet have print reporter citations. These will be provided, as they become available, through later publications.

This publication contains annotations taken from decisions of the Mississippi Supreme Court and the Court of Appeals and decisions of the appropriate federal courts. These cases will be printed in the following reporters:

- 1 Southern Reporter, 3rd Series
- 2 United States Supreme Court Reports
- 3 Supreme Court Reporter
- 4 United States Supreme Court Reports, Lawyers' Edition, 2nd Series
- 5 Federal Reporter, 4th Series
- 6 Federal Supplement, 2nd Series
- 7 Federal Rules Decisions
- 8 Bankruptcy Reporter

Additionally, annotations have been taken from the following sources:

- 9 American Law Reports, 6th Series
- 10 American Law Reports, Federal 2nd
- 11 Mississippi College Law Review
- 12 Mississippi Law Journal

Finally, published opinions of the Attorney General and opinions of the Ethics Commission have been examined for annotations.

Amendment Notes

Amendment notes detail how the new legislation affects existing sections.

Editor's Notes

Editor's notes summarize subject matter and legislative history of repealed sections, provide information as to portions of legislative acts that have not been codified, or explain other pertinent information.

PURPOSES AND POWERS.

§ 79-4-3.02. General powers.

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

I. UNDER CURRENT LAW.

1. In general.

Chancellor erred in requiring a director to reimburse a corporation for a donation because by directing the donation, the director in his role as sole director was exercising a legitimate corporate power; while the record indicated the director in the past had also made additional corporate donations without consulting a shareholder, the evidence was not substantial enough to support a finding that the donation was a personal expense. Boatright v. A & H Techs., Inc., 296 So. 3d 687, 2020 Miss. LEXIS 243 (Miss. 2020).

However, no person or corporation may reserve the name “In God We Trust” which name shall be reserved to the people of the State of Mississippi, as a symbol thereof. The application must set forth the name and address of the applicant and the name proposed to be reserved. to another person by delivering to the Secretary of State a signed notice of the transfer that states the name and address of the transferee.

(c) The reservation of a specified name may be cancelled by delivering to the Secretary of State a notice of cancellation, specifying the name of the reservation to be cancelled and the name and address of the owner or transferee.

(d) Unless the Secretary of State finds that any application, notice of transfer, or notice of cancellation filed with the Secretary of State as required by this section does not conform to law, upon receipt of all filing fees required by law the Secretary of State shall prepare and return to the person who filed the instrument a copy of the filed instrument with a notation thereon of the action taken by the Secretary of State.

(e) A fee as set forth in Section 79-4-1.22 of this chapter shall be paid at the time of the reservation of any name and at the time of the filing of a notice of the transfer or cancellation of any such reservation.

Sec.

79-4-7.05. Notice of meeting.

§ 79-4-7.01. Annual meeting.

(a) Unless directors are elected by written consent in lieu of an annual meeting as permitted by Section 79-4-7.04, a corporation shall hold a meeting of shareholders annually at a time stated in or fixed in accordance with the bylaws; provided, however, that if a corporation's articles of incorporation authorize shareholders to cumulate their votes when electing directors pursuant to Section 79-4-7.28, directors may not be elected by less than unanimous written consent.

(b) Annual shareholders' meetings may be held in or out of this state at the place stated in or fixed in accordance with the bylaws or, unless prohibited by the corporation's bylaws, the corporation may elect to hold such meeting by electronic transmission or other means of remote communication, or a combination thereof. If no place is stated in or fixed in accordance with the bylaws, annual meetings shall be held at the corporation's principal office by electronic transmission or other means of remote communication, or by a combination thereof.

(c) The failure to hold an annual meeting at the time stated in or fixed in accordance with a corporation's bylaws does not affect the validity of any corporate action.

(d) For purposes of this section and the other sections of this Article 7 of the Mississippi Business Corporation Act, "remote communication" means communication via electronic communication, conference telephone, videoconference, the internet, or such other means by which persons not physically present in the same location may communicate with each other on a substantially concurrent basis.

HISTORY: Laws, 1987, ch. 486, § 7.01; Laws, 2007, ch. 361, § 4, eff from and after July 1, 2007; Laws, 2021, ch. 369, § 1, eff from and after passage (approved March 17, 2021).

Amendment Notes — The 2021 amendment, effective March 17, 2021, in (b), added "or, unless prohibited by the corporation's bylaws, the corporation may elect to hold such meeting by electronic transmission or other means of remote communication, or a combination thereof" and "by electronic transmission or other means of remote communication, or by a combination thereof"; and added (d).

§ 79-4-7.02. Special meeting.

(a) A corporation shall hold a special meeting of shareholders:

(1) On call of its board of directors or the person or persons authorized to do so by the articles of incorporation or bylaws; or

(2) Unless the articles of incorporation provide otherwise, if shareholders having at least ten percent (10%) of all the votes entitled to be cast on an issue proposed to be considered at the proposed special meeting sign, date and deliver to the corporation one or more written demands for the meeting describing the purpose or purposes for which it is to be held. Unless otherwise provided in the articles of incorporation, a written demand for a special meeting may be revoked by a writing to that effect received by the corporation prior to the receipt by the corporation of demands sufficient in number to require the holding of a special meeting.

(b) If not otherwise fixed under Section 79-4-7.03 or 79-4-7.07, the record date for determining shareholders entitled to demand a special meeting is the date the first shareholder signs the demand.

(c) Special shareholders' meetings may be held in or out of this state at the place stated in or fixed in accordance with the bylaws or, unless prohibited by the corporation's bylaws, the corporation may elect to hold such meeting by electronic transmission or other means of remote communication, or a combination thereof. If no place is stated or fixed in accordance with the bylaws, special meetings shall be held at the corporation's principal office by electronic transmission or other means of remote communication, or a combination thereof.

(d) Only business within the purpose or purposes described in the meeting notice required by Section 79-4-7.05(c) may be conducted at a special shareholders' meeting.

HISTORY: Laws, 1987, ch. 486, § 7.02; Laws, 1997, ch. 418, § 49, eff from and after July 1, 1997; Laws, 2021, ch. 369, § 2, eff from and after passage (approved March 17, 2021).

Amendment Notes — The 2021 amendment, effective March 17, 2021, in (c), added “or, unless prohibited by the corporation's bylaws, the corporation may elect to hold such meeting by electronic transmission or other means of remote communication, or a combination thereof” and “by electronic transmission or other means of remote communication, or a combination thereof.”

§ 79-4-7.05. Notice of meeting.

(a) A corporation shall notify shareholders of the date, time and place of, and, if applicable, the method to access by remote communication, each annual and special shareholders' meeting no fewer than ten (10) nor more than sixty (60) days before the meeting date. If the board of directors has authorized participation by means of remote communication pursuant to Section 79-4-7.09 for any class or series of shareholders, the notice of such class or series of shareholders shall describe the means of remote communication to be used. Unless Section 79-4-1.01 et seq. or the articles of incorporation require otherwise, the corporation is required to give notice only to shareholders entitled to vote at the meeting.

(b) Unless Section 79-4-1.01 et seq. or the articles of incorporation require otherwise, notice of an annual meeting need not include a description of the purpose or purposes for which the meeting is called.

(c) Notice of a special meeting must include a description of the purpose or purposes for which the meeting is called.

(d) If not otherwise fixed under Section 79-4-7.03 or 79-4-7.07, the record date for determining shareholders entitled to notice of and to vote at an annual or special shareholders' meeting is the day before the first notice is delivered to shareholders.

(e) Unless the bylaws require otherwise, if an annual or special shareholders' meeting is adjourned to a different date, time or place, or, if applicable, method to access by remote communication, notice need not be given of the new date, time, place or method of remote communication if the new date, time, place or method of remote communication is announced at the meeting before adjournment. If a new record date for the adjourned meeting is or must be fixed under Section 79-4-7.07, however, notice of the adjourned meeting must be given under this section to persons who are shareholders as of the new record date.

Joint Legislative Committee Note — Pursuant to Section 1-1-109, the Joint Legislative Committee on Compilation, Revision and Publication of Legislation corrected an error in (e) by substituting "or method of remote communication" for "or method or remote communication." The Joint Committee ratified the correction at its August 20, 2021, meeting.

Amendment Notes — The 2021 amendment, effective March 17, 2021, in (a), inserted "and, if applicable, the method to access by remote communication"; and in (e), inserted "or, if applicable, method to access by remote communication" and "or method of remote communication" two times.

VOTING TRUSTS AND AGREEMENTS.

Sec.
79-4-7.30. Voting trusts.

§ 79-4-7.30. Voting trusts.

(a) One or more shareholders may create a voting trust, conferring on a trustee the right to vote or otherwise act for them, by signing an agreement setting out the provisions of the trust (which may include anything consistent with its purpose) and transferring their shares to the trustee. When a voting trust agreement is signed, the trustee shall prepare a list of the names and addresses of all owners of beneficial interests in the trust, together with the number and class of shares each transferred to the trust, and deliver copies of the list and agreement to the corporation's principal office.

(b) A voting trust becomes effective on the date the first shares subject to the trust are registered in the trustee's name. A voting trust is valid for the period specified in the trust agreement.

(c) All or some of the parties to a voting trust may extend it for additional terms by signing an extension agreement and obtaining the voting trustee's written consent to the extension. An extension is valid for the period specified in the extension agreement. The voting trustee must deliver copies of the extension agreement and list of beneficial owners to the corporation's principal office. An extension agreement binds only those parties signing it.

HISTORY: Laws, 1987, ch. 486, § 7.30; Laws, 2017, ch. 369, § 1, eff from and after July 1, 2017.

Amendment Notes — The 2017 amendment rewrote the second sentence of (b), which read: "A voting trust is valid for not more than ten (10) years after its effective date unless extended under subsection (c)"; and in (c), deleted "of not more than ten (10) years each" following "additional terms" in the first sentence, and rewrote the second sentence, which read: "An extension is valid for ten (10) years from the date the first shareholder signs the extension agreement."

ANALYSIS

1. Burden of proof.
2. Special committee.

1. Burden of proof.

Plaintiff bears the burden, pursuant to Miss. Code Ann. § 79-4-7.44(d), of establishing, pursuant to § 79-4-7.44(a), that a special committee's determination that the maintenance of the derivative proceeding was not in the best interests of the corporation was not made in good faith after it conducted a reasonable inquiry upon which its conclusions were based. If the plaintiff fails to demonstrate lack of good faith after a reasonable inquiry upon which the special committee's conclusions were based, then the derivative proceeding must be dismissed. Burgess v. Patter- son, 188 So. 3d 537, 2016 Miss. LEXIS 154 (Miss. 2016).

Plaintiff failed to demonstrate that a special committee's decision that the maintenance of the derivative suit was not in the best interests of the corporation was not made in good faith after it had conducted a reasonable inquiry. Therefore, the circuit court was not in error for granting dismissal to the corporation. Burgess v. Patterson, 188 So. 3d 537, 2016 Miss. LEXIS 154 (Miss. 2016).

2. Special committee.

Because plaintiff did not allege with particularity facts establishing that the members of a special committee were not qualified, dismissal of plaintiff's derivative action was appropriate. Burgess v. Patterson, 188 So. 3d 537, 2016 Miss. LEXIS 154 (Miss. 2016).

Chancellor did not err in awarding a shareholder attorney's fees to be paid by a corporation because the finding that the shareholder's derivative action benefitted the corporation was supported by the record. Boatright v. A & H Techs., Inc., 296 So. 3d 687, 2020 Miss. LEXIS 243 (Miss. 2020).

Because the chancellor would have been within his discretion to award no attorney's fees at all, the supreme court refused to second-guess the chancellor but instead affirmed the attorney's fees award to a shareholder, including the order that the corporation had to pay, on both appeal and cross-appeal. *Boatright v. (7) Consummation of a conversion of the corporation to a different form of entity under the Mississippi Entity Conversion and Domestication Act.

3. Alternative to dissolution.

1. Dissolution order did not exceed pleadings.

Chancellor's corporate dissolution order did not exceed the pleadings because (1) such a claim was adequately pled, (2) the chancellor did not have to grant an election to purchase shares before exercising broad equity powers under Miss. Code Ann. § 79-4-14.34(i), (3) the chancellor could grant alternate remedies, since dissolution was not ordered, and (4) fiduciary breach was adequately claimed. Scafidi v. Hille, 180 So. 3d 634, 2015 Miss. LEXIS 603 (Miss. 2015).

2. Claim stated.

Appellant stated a claim for dissolution of the corporation because the agreement in question might be invalid as applied to appellant due to oppressive or fraudulent conduct, in which case she would be entitled to the fair value of her share, and dismissal of her claim was reversed; other shareholders offered her only $ 900,000 for her share, when she allegedly had been offered $ 1.5 million by an outsider, and there was a question of fact whether the price had been previously set at an annual meeting by secret ballot. Chain v. Ormonde Plantation, Inc., 303 So. 3d 53, 2020 Miss. App. LEXIS 98 (Miss. Ct. App.), cert. denied, 302 So. 3d 646, 2020 Miss. LEXIS 360 (Miss. 2020).

3. Alternative to dissolution.

Chancellor did not err by awarding a shareholder fifty percent ownership instead of dissolving a corporation because the chancellor had authority to order the transfer of shares from the director to the shareholder to achieve 50/50 ownership as a remedy for the director's oppressive conduct; the record supported the finding the director had engaged in oppressive conduct sufficient to warrant corporate dissolution. Boatright v. A & H Techs., Inc., 296 So. 3d 687, 2020 Miss. LEXIS 243 (Miss. 2020).

When a shareholder sought a family corporation's judicial dissolution in chancery court, a decree awarding the shareholder an in-kind division of the corporation's land was not unauthorized, even after siblings invoked their right to purchase the shareholder's shares, because Miss. Code Ann. § 79-4-14.34 said nothing to diminish the chancellor's equity powers to fashion an alternate remedy. Rainbow Ranch, Inc. v. Hardin (In re Will of Hardin), 158 So. 3d 341, 2014 Miss. § 79-11-157. Corporate name.

2. Attorney fees.

Neither party was entitled to attorney fees because a developer did not breach any portion of the subdivision covenants, and the homeowners’ lawsuit was neither frivolous, brought in bad faith, without reasonable cause, nor for an improper purpose, and they succeeded in obtaining a judgment in their favor as to one issue—that the developer was an owner of its residential lots. Heckenberger v. Livingston Dev. Corp., 282 So. 3d 1252, 2019 Miss. App. LEXIS 488 (Miss. Ct. App. 2019).

REGULATION OF CHARITABLE SOLICITATIONS

- Sec.
79-11-503. Registration statement; filing fee; forms; records; exceptions; final report upon expiration of registration of corporation opting not to renew registration; report contents.

(2) The registration statement shall be signed and sworn to under penalties of perjury by the president or other authorized officer and the chief fiscal officer of the organization.

(3) The Secretary of State shall issue a certificate of registration to a charitable organization once the Secretary of State determines that such organization has complied with all provisions of this chapter. No charitable organization required to be registered under this section shall solicit funds without a valid certificate of registration.

(4)(a) Such registration shall remain in effect until the time for annual renewal. A charitable organization shall renew registration by filing forms prescribed by the Secretary of State and paying the Fifty Dollar ($50.00) renewal fee on or before the fifteenth day of the fifth month following the close of the charitable organization's taxable year.

(5) Every registered organization shall notify the Secretary of State within thirty (30) days of any change in the information required to be furnished by such organization under Sections 79-11-501 through 79-11-529.

(6) In no event shall a registered charitable organization continue to solicit contributions in or from this state after the date such organization should have filed, but failed to file, a renewal and the financial report in accordance with the requirements of Sections 79-11-501 through 79-11-529.

(7) If any local, county or area division of a charitable organization is supervised and controlled by a superior or parent organization, incorporated, qualified to do business, or doing business within this state, such local, county or area division shall not be required to register under this section if the superior or parent organization files a registration statement on behalf of the local, county or area division in addition to or as part of its own registration statement. If a registration statement has been filed by a superior or parent organization as provided in Section 79-11-503(1), it shall file the annual report required under Section 79-11-507 on behalf of the local, county or area division in addition to or as part of its own report, but the accounting information required under Section 79-11-507 shall be set forth separately and not in consolidated form with respect to every local, county or area division which raises or expends more than Twenty-five Thousand Dollars ($25,000.00).

(8) Any registered charitable organization which for any reason opts not to renew its registration must, upon the expiration of its registration, provide to the Secretary of State a final report including the following, in addition to such other information the Secretary of State may require by rule:

(a) For domestic charitable organizations which have dissolved pursuant to the Mississippi Nonprofit Corporation Act;

(i) All financial statements and reports required by Section 79-11-507;

(b) For all other charitable organizations, foreign or domestic, which opt not to renew for any other reason:

(i) All financial statements and reports required by Section 79-11-507; and

(ii) A statement signed by an officer of the charitable organization certifying that the organization has ceased charitable solicitations within the state.

HISTORY: Laws, 1991, ch. 515, § 2; reenacted and amended, Laws, 1992, ch. 446, § 2; Laws, 1997, ch. 444, § 2; Laws, 2009, ch. 547, § 5; Laws, 2016, ch. 313, § 1, eff from and after July 1, 2016.

Amendment Notes — The 2016 amendment rewrote (4), which read: "Such registration shall remain in effect for one (1) year, unless renewed by the filing of forms as prescribed by the Secretary of State and upon payment of the Fifty Dollars ($50.00) renewal fee."

§ 79-11-505. Exemption from provisions; notice of exemption; burden of proof.

(1) The registration provisions of Section 79-11-503 and the reporting provisions of Section 79-11-507 shall not apply to the following organizations:

(a) All educational institutions that are recognized by the State Board of Education or that are accredited by a regional accrediting association or by an organization affiliated with the National Commission on Accrediting, any foundation having an established identity with any of the aforementioned educational institutions, any other educational institution which makes the solicitation of contributions solely by its student body, alumni, faculty and trustees and their families or a library established under the laws of this state.

(b) Fraternal, patriotic, social, educational, alumni organizations and historical societies when solicitation of contributions is made solely by their membership; however, posts of the American Legion and posts of the Veterans of Foreign Wars of the United States may utilize nonmembers to assist designated supervisors in the conduct of bingo under the Charitable Bingo Law and qualify for this exemption. This exemption shall be extended to any subsidiary of a parent or superior organization if such solicitation is made solely by the membership of the subsidiary, parent or superior organization.

(c) Persons requesting any contributions for the relief or benefit of any individual, specified by name at the time of the solicitation, if the contributions collected are turned over to the named beneficiary, first deducting reasonable expenses for costs of banquets or social gatherings, if any, provided all fundraising functions are carried on by persons who are unpaid, directly or indirectly, for such services.

(d) Any charitable organization which does not intend to solicit and receive and does not actually receive contributions in excess of Twenty-five Thousand Dollars ($25,000.00) during any twelve-month period ending June 30 of any year or on such other date as prescribed by rule, provided all of its fundraising functions are carried on by persons who are unpaid for such services. However, if the gross contributions received by such charitable organization during any twelve-month period ending June 30 of any year or other date as prescribed by rule shall be in excess of Twenty-five Thousand Dollars ($25,000.00) it shall, within thirty (30) days after the date it shall have received total contributions in excess of Twenty-five Thousand Dollars ($25,000.00), register with and report to the Secretary of State as required by this chapter.

(e) Any charitable organization receiving an allocation from an incorporated community chest or united fund, provided such chest or fund is complying with the provisions of Sections 79-11-501 through 79-11-529 relating to registration and filing of annual reports with the Secretary of State, and provided such organization does not actually receive, in addition to such allocation, contributions in excess of Twenty-five Thousand Dollars

($25,000.00) during any twelve-month period ending June 30 of any year or such other date as prescribed by rule, and provided further, that all the fundraising functions of such organization are carried on by persons who are unpaid for such services. However, if the gross contributions other than such allocation received by such charitable organization during any twelve-month period ending June 30 of any year or on such other date as prescribed by rule shall be in excess of Twenty-five Thousand Dollars ($25,000.00), it shall, within thirty (30) days after the date it shall have received such contributions in excess of Twenty-five Thousand Dollars ($25,000.00), register with and report to the Secretary of State as required by this chapter.

(f) All volunteer fire departments or rescue units, rural or otherwise, chartered under the laws and statutes of the State of Mississippi as nonprofit corporations.

(g) Any humane society organized under the laws of Mississippi which receives not less than fifty percent (50%) of its annual funding from contracts with counties or municipalities for the care and keeping of estrays.

(h) Any other organization which the Secretary of State by rule or order exempts from the registration requirements of this chapter upon finding that (i) such registration is neither necessary in the public interest nor for the protection of contributors, or (ii) such exemption shall further the objectives of compatibility with uniformity among the states.

(2) Prior to any solicitations for contributions, each charitable organization claiming to be exempt shall file a Notice of Exemption on the forms prescribed by the Secretary of State. In any proceeding under this chapter, the burden of proving an exemption, or an exception from a definition, is upon the person claiming it.

HISTORY: Laws, 1991, ch. 515, § 3; reenacted and amended, Laws, 1992, ch. 446, § 3; Laws, 1994, ch. 393, § 1; Laws, 1997, ch. 444, § 4; Laws, 2007, ch. 360, § 1; Laws, 2009, ch. 547, § 6, eff from and after July 1, 2009; Laws, 2018, ch. 370, § 1, eff from and after July 1, 2018.

Amendment Notes — The 2018 amendment inserted “receives not less than fifty percent (50%) of its annual funding from” in (1)(g).

§ 79-11-509. Effective date of registration; denial, suspension or revocation of registration or exemption; grounds for denial, suspension or revocation; procedure; violations and penalties; appeal.

(a) The application for registration or renewal is incomplete.

(b) The application or renewal fee (where applicable) has not been paid.

(f) Any applicant, registrant, officer, director, or partner of the applicant or registrant, or any agent or employee thereof who has been convicted of a felony or a misdemeanor involving misrepresentation, misapplication or misuse of the money or property of another maintains a position where he or she has access to or control over the funds of the charitable organization.

(g) The applicant or registrant has engaged in the use or employment of dishonesty, fraud, deception, misrepresentation, false promise or false pretense.

(h) The applicant or registrant has had the authority to engage in charitable or fund-raising activities denied, revoked or suspended by the Secretary of State or any other state or jurisdiction.

(i) The applicant or registrant has been convicted of any criminal offense committed in connection with the performance of activities regulated under Sections 79-11-501 through 79-11-529 or any criminal offense involving untruthfulness or dishonesty or any criminal offense relating adversely to the registrant's or applicant's fitness to perform activities regulated by Sections 79-11-501 through 79-11-529. For the purposes of this paragraph, a plea of guilty, non vult, nolo contendere or any other similar disposition of alleged criminal activity shall be deemed a conviction.

(j) Any applicant, registrant, officer, director, or partner of the applicant or registrant, or any agent, volunteer or employee thereof, who has been convicted under federal or state law of any criminal offense involving acts against children maintains a position where he or she is in close contact with children.

The notification shall contain the reasons for the action and shall inform him of his right to request an administrative hearing within thirty (30) days of receipt of the notification. The denial, suspension or revocation shall become effective thirty (30) days after receipt of the notification unless a request for an administrative hearing is received by the Secretary of State before the expiration of the thirty (30) days. If a hearing is requested and the denial, suspension or revocation is upheld, the denial, suspension or revocation shall become effective upon the service of the final administrative decision on the applicant or licensee.

(3) Registration shall become effective no later than noon of the thirtieth day after a completed application is filed, if no denial order is in effect and no proceeding is pending under this chapter. The Secretary of State may, by rule or order, specify an earlier effective date, and the Secretary of State may, by order, defer the effective date until noon of the thirtieth day after the filing of any amendment.

(4) Whenever it appears to the Secretary of State that any person has engaged in or is about to engage in any act or practice constituting a violation of any provision of this chapter or any rule or order hereunder, he may, in his discretion, seek one or more of the following remedies in addition to other remedies authorized by law:

(a) Issue a cease and desist order, with or without a prior hearing against the person or persons engaged in the prohibited activities, directing them to cease and desist from further illegal activity;

(b) Administratively dissolve or seek the judicial dissolution of a domestic corporation that is a charitable organization, or revoke the certificate of authority of a foreign corporation that is a charitable organization; or

(c) Issue an order imposing an administrative penalty up to a maximum of Twenty-five Thousand Dollars ($25,000.00) for each offense, each violation to be considered as a separate offense in a single proceeding or a series of related proceedings;

(d) For the purpose of determining the amount or extent of a sanction, if any, to be imposed under paragraph (b) or (c) of this subsection, the Secretary of State shall consider, among other factors, the frequency, persistence and willfulness of the conduct constituting a violation of this chapter or a rule promulgated thereunder or an order of the Secretary of State, the number of persons adversely affected by the conduct, and the resources of the person committing the violation.

(5) In addition to the above remedies, the Secretary of State may issue a citation to any person engaging in any act or practice constituting a violation of any provision of this chapter or any rule or order hereunder. The Secretary of State shall establish rules providing remediation of certain citations, and the decision whether to allow such remediation will be within the Secretary of State's discretion.

(6) Whenever it appears to the Secretary of State or Attorney General that any person has engaged in or is about to engage in any act or practice constituting a violation of any provision of Sections 79-11-501 through 79-11-529 or any rule or order thereunder, either official may, in his discretion, take any or all of the following actions: bring an action in chancery court to obtain a temporary restraining order or injunction to enjoin the acts or practices and enforce compliance with Sections 79-11-501 through 79-11-529 or any rule or order thereunder; collect administrative penalties imposed under this section; or obtain on behalf of a charitable organization the return or repayment of any property or consideration received as private inurement or an excess benefit in violation of Section 79-11-519(3)(j). Upon a proper showing a permanent or temporary injunction, restraining order or writ of mandamus shall be granted and a receiver or conservator may be appointed for the defendant or the defendant's assets. In addition, upon a proper showing, the court may enter an order of rescission, restitution or disgorgement directed to any person who has engaged in any act constituting a violation of any provision of Sections 79-11-501 through 79-11-529 or any rule or order thereunder. In addition the court may impose a civil penalty up to a maximum of Twenty-five Thousand Dollars ($25,000.00) for each offense, and each violation shall be considered as a separate offense in a single proceeding or a series of related proceedings. The court may not require the Secretary of State or Attorney General to post a bond.

(7) Any person aggrieved by a final order of the Secretary of State may obtain a review of the order in the Chancery Court of the First Judicial District of Hinds County, Mississippi, by filing in the court, within thirty (30) days after the entry of the order, a written petition praying that the order be modified or set aside, in whole or in part. A copy of the petition shall be forthwith served upon the Secretary of State and thereupon the Secretary of State shall certify and file in court a copy of the filing and evidence upon which the order was entered. When these have been filed, the court has exclusive jurisdiction to affirm, modify, enforce or set aside the order, in whole or in part.

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. Statute of frauds.

Statute of frauds did not bar claim by purported partners because the partners’ claims did not involve a dispute over a contract for the sale of lands, but a dispute over partnership profits and assets. An otherwise enforceable verbal partnership agreement did not constitute a contract for the sale of lands under the statute of frauds simply because the purpose of the partnership included the purchase of real estate. Latham v. Johnson, 262 So. 3d 569, 2018 Miss. App. LEXIS 314 (Miss. Ct. App. 2018), cert. denied, 260 So. 3d 798, 2019 Miss. LEXIS 48 (Miss. 2019).

ARTICLE 2.

NATURE OF PARTNERSHIP.

§ 79-13-201. Partnership as entity.

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. Bankruptcy.

Where creditor sold farm supplies to partnership in which debtor was general partner, creditor was not entitled to administrative expense claim because partnership was separate legal entity and parties stipulated that farm supplies were delivered to partnership, and not to either general partner. In re Spencer, 2016 Bankr. LEXIS 3867 (Bankr. N.D. Miss. Nov. 1, 2016).

§ 79-13-202. Formation of partnership.

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. Partnership not found.

A surviving spouse was entitled to a directed verdict because, although a claimant had to prove that the surviving spouse and the decedent were in a partnership, no evidence of a partnership was presented as there was no evidence that the surviving spouse and the decedent intended to run the business as partners, that the surviving spouse controlled the direction of the business, or that the surviving spouse and the decedent were sharing profits. Malouf v. Evans, 276 So. 3d 1184, 2018 Miss. App. LEXIS 326 (Miss. Ct. App. 2018).

Chancellor did not abuse his discretion in finding no partnership existed between the parties, given that appellant did not prove that the parties intended to enter into a partnership agreement for a business, and thus appellant could not claim that the parties entered a partnership with the property based on its association with the business, plus appellant failed to prove that she controlled the day-to-day operations or the direction of the business, and only appellee received dividends. Carlson v. Brabham, 199 So. 3d 735, 2016 Miss. App. LEXIS 32 (Miss. Ct. App. 2016).

§ 79-13-203. Partnership property.

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. Conversion of property.

Chancery court erred in finding that a partner's attorney converted the partner's property because the evidence failed to establish that the checks or the funds at issue belonged to the partner individually where the property was either property of the partnership or represented the co-partner's share of the liquid assets of the partnership. Newton v. Brown, 198 So. 3d 1284, 2016 Miss. App. LEXIS 333 (Miss. Ct. App. 2016).

§ 79-13-204. When property is partnership property.

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. Partnership property.

Evidence supported the chancellor's determination that the property at issue was partnership property where the testimony revealed that all of these properties were treated as partnership property, that they were purchased with partnership funds, that the property taxes were paid with partnership funds, and that the rent from the properties was collected by and paid to the partnership. White v. White (In re White), 234 So. 3d 1210, 2017 Miss. LEXIS 351 (Miss. 2017).

ARTICLE 3.

RELATIONS OF PARTNERS TO PERSONS DEALING WITH PARTNERSHIP.

§ 79-13-308. Liability of purported partner.

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. Purported partner

Evidence supported a trial court's finding that a surviving spouse was not a purported partner of a business with the decedent—even if the surviving spouse participated in counting inventory, collecting money, and writing receipts. Malouf v. Evans, 276 So. 3d 1184, 2018 Miss. App. LEXIS 326 (Miss. Ct. App. 2018).

ARTICLE 4.

RELATIONS OF PARTNERS TO EACH OTHER AND TO PARTNERSHIP.

Sec.

79-13-401. Partner's rights and duties.

§ 79-13-401. Partner's rights and duties.

(a) Each partner is deemed to have an account that is:

(1) Credited with an amount equal to the money plus the value of any other property, net of the amount of any liabilities, the partner contributes to the partnership and the partner's share of the partnership profits; and

(2) Charged with an amount equal to the money plus the value of any other property, net of the amount of any liabilities, distributed by the partnership to the partner and the partner's share of the partnership losses.

(b) Each partner is entitled to an equal share of the partnership profits and is chargeable with a share of the partnership losses in proportion to the partner's share of the profits.

(c) A partnership shall reimburse a partner for payments made and indemnify a partner for liabilities incurred by the partner in the ordinary course of the business of the partnership or for the preservation of its business or property.

(d) A partnership shall reimburse a partner for an advance to the partnership beyond the amount of capital the partner agreed to contribute.

(e) A payment or advance made by a partner which gives rise to a partnership obligation under subsection (c) or (d) constitutes a loan to the partnership which accrues interest from the date of the payment or advance.

(f) Each partner has equal rights in the management and conduct of the partnership business.

(g) A partner may use or possess partnership property only on behalf of the partnership.

(h) A partner is not entitled to remuneration for services performed for the partnership, except for reasonable compensation for services rendered in winding up the business of the partnership.

(i) Except as provided in Article 9 of this chapter or the Mississippi Entity Conversion and Domestication Act, a person may become a partner only with the consent of all of the partners.

(j) A difference arising as to a matter in the ordinary course of business of a partnership may be decided by a majority of the partners. An act outside the ordinary course of business of a partnership and an amendment to the partnership agreement may be undertaken only with the consent of all of the partners.

(k) This section does not affect the obligations of a partnership to other persons under Section 79-13-301.

HISTORY: Laws, 2004, ch. 458, § 401; Laws, 2014, ch. 399, § 38, eff from and after Jan. 1, 2015.

Amendment Notes — The 2014 amendment, effective January 1, 2015, inserted the exception at the beginning of (i).

§ 79-13-405. Actions by partnership and partners.

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. Applicability.

When purported partners filed an action to enforce their rights under a partnership agreement, including their right to an equal share of the partnership profits, to information concerning the partnership's business and affairs, and to compel another partner to abide by that partner's fiduciary duties and duties of care to the partnership and the partners, an accounting was not required. Latham v. Johnson, 262 So. 3d 569, 2018 Miss. App. LEXIS 314 (Miss. Ct. App. 2018), cert. denied, 260 So. 3d 798, 2019 Miss. LEXIS 48 (Miss. 2019).

ties stipulated that farm supplies were delivered to partnership, and not to either general partner. In re Spencer, 2016 Bankr. LEXIS 3867 (Bankr. N.D. Miss. Nov. 1, 2016).

§ 79-13-502. Partner's transferable interest in partnership.

Except as provided in Article 9 of this chapter or the Mississippi Entity Conversion and Domestication Act, the only transferable interest of a partner in the partnership is the partner's share of the profits and losses of the partnership and the partner's right to receive distributions. The interest of a partner, whether or not transferable, is personal property.

§ 79-13-1107. Administrative revocation of statement of foreign qualification; procedure.

(a) If the Secretary of State determines that one or more grounds exist under Section 79-13-1106 for revocation of a statement of foreign qualification, he shall serve the foreign limited liability partnership with written notice of his determination, except that such determination may be served by first-class mail.

(b) If the foreign limited liability partnership does not correct each ground for revocation or demonstrate to the reasonable satisfaction of the Secretary of State that each ground determined by the Secretary of State does not exist within sixty (60) days after service of the notice is perfected, the Secretary of State may revoke the foreign limited liability partnership's statement of foreign qualification by signing a certificate of revocation that recites the ground or grounds for revocation and its effective date. The Secretary of State shall file the original of the certificate and serve a copy on the foreign limited liability partnership, except that such certificate may be served by first-class mail.

(c) The authority of a foreign limited liability partnership to transact business in this state ceases on the date shown on the certificate revoking its registration.

(d) The Secretary of State's revocation of a foreign limited liability partnership's registration appoints the Secretary of State the foreign limited liability partnership's agent for service of process in any proceeding based on a cause of action which arose during the time the foreign limited liability partnership was authorized to transact business in this state. Service of process on the Secretary of State under this subsection is service on the foreign limited liability partnership. Upon receipt of process, the Secretary of State shall mail a copy of the process to the foreign limited liability partnership at its principal office shown in its most recent communication received from the foreign limited liability partnership stating the current mailing address of its principal office, or, if none are on file, in its application for a registration.

(7) Eliminate the contractual obligation of good faith and fair dealing under Sections 79-14-305(a) and 79-14-409(d), but the partnership agreement may prescribe the standards, if not manifestly unreasonable, by which the performance of the obligation is to be measured;

(d) Subject to subsection (c)(8), without limiting other terms that may be included in a partnership agreement, the following rules apply:

(1) The partnership agreement may:

(A) Specify the method by which a specific act or transaction that would otherwise violate the duty of loyalty may be authorized or ratified by one or more disinterested and independent persons after full disclosure of all material facts; and

(B) Alter the prohibition in Section 79-14-504(a)(2) so that the prohibition requires only that the partnership's total assets not be less than the sum of its total liabilities.

(2) If not manifestly unreasonable, the partnership agreement may:

(A) Alter or eliminate the aspects of the duty of loyalty stated in Section 79-14-409(b);

(B) Identify specific types or categories of activities that do not violate the duty of loyalty;

(C) Alter the duty of care, but may not authorize conduct involving bad faith, willful or intentional misconduct, or knowing violation of law; and

(D) Alter or eliminate any other fiduciary duty.

(e) The court shall decide as a matter of law whether a term of a partnership agreement is manifestly unreasonable under subsection (c)(7) or (d)(2). The court:

(1) Shall make its determination as of the time the challenged term became part of the partnership agreement and by considering only circumstances existing at that time; and

(2) May invalidate the term only if, in light of the purposes, activities, and affairs of the limited partnership, it is readily apparent that:

(A) The objective of the term is unreasonable; or

(B) The term is an unreasonable means to achieve its objective.

Editor's Notes — A former § 79-14-106 [Laws, 1987, ch. 488, § 106, effective from and after January 1, 1988; Repealed by Laws, 2015, ch. 453, § 6, effective from and after July 1, 2015.] provided that a limited partnership could carry on any business that a partnership without limited partners could carry on.

(b) The obligations of a limited partnership and its partners to a person in the person's capacity as a transferee or person dissociated as a partner are governed by the partnership agreement. Subject only to a court order issued under Section 79-14-703(b)(2) to effectuate a charging order, an amendment to the partnership agreement made after a person becomes a transferee or is dissociated as a partner:

(1) Is effective with regard to any debt, obligation, or other liability of the partnership or its partners to the person in the person's capacity as a transferee or person dissociated as a partner; and

(2) Is not effective to the extent the amendment imposes a new debt, obligation, or other liability on the transferee or person dissociated as a partner.

(c) If a record delivered by a limited partnership to the Secretary of State for filing becomes effective and contains a provision that would be ineffective under Section 79-14-105(c) or (d)(2) if contained in the partnership agreement, the provision is ineffective in the record.

(d) Subject to subsection (c), if a record delivered by a limited partnership to the Secretary of State for filing becomes effective and conflicts with a provision of the partnership agreement:

(1) The agreement prevails as to partners, persons dissociated as partners, and transferees; and

(2) The record prevails as to other persons to the extent they reasonably rely on the record.

§ 79-14-301. Becoming limited partner.

(b) After formation, a person becomes a limited partner:

- (1) As provided in the partnership agreement;
- (2) As the result of a transaction effective under Article 11;
- (3) With the affirmative vote or consent of all the partners; or
- (4) As provided in Section 79-14-801(a)(4) or (a)(5).

(c) A person may become a limited partner without:

- (1) Acquiring a transferable interest; or
- (2) Making or being obligated to make a contribution to the limited partnership.

§ 79-14-302. No agency power of limited partner as limited partner.

(a) A limited partner is not an agent of a limited partnership solely by reason of being a limited partner.

(b) A person's status as a limited partner does not prevent or restrict law other than this chapter from imposing liability on a limited partnership because of the person's conduct.

HISTORY: Laws, 2015, ch. 453, § 1, eff from July 1, 2015.

Editor's Notes — A former § 79-14-302 [Laws, 1987, ch. 488, § 302, effective from and after January 1, 1988; Repealed by Laws, 2015, ch. 453, § 6, effective from and after July 1, 2015.] related to classes or groups of limited partners.

§ 79-14-303. No liability as limited partner for limited partnership obligations.

(a) A debt, obligation, or other liability of a limited partnership is not the debt, obligation, or other liability of a limited partner. A limited partner is not personally liable, directly or indirectly, by way of contribution or otherwise, for a debt, obligation, or other liability of the partnership solely by reason of being or acting as a limited partner, even if the limited partner participates in the management and control of the limited partnership. This subsection applies regardless of the dissolution of the partnership.

(b) The failure of a limited partnership to observe formalities relating to the exercise of its powers or management of its activities and affairs is not a ground for imposing liability on a limited partner for a debt, obligation, or other liability of the partnership.

§ 79-14-304. Rights to information of limited partner and person dissociated as limited partner.

(a) On ten (10) days' demand, made in a record received by the limited partnership, a limited partner may inspect and copy required information during regular business hours in the limited partnership's principal office. The limited partner need not have any particular purpose for seeking the information.

(b) During regular business hours and at a reasonable location specified by the limited partnership, a limited partner may inspect and copy information regarding the activities, affairs, financial condition, and other circumstances of the limited partnership as is just and reasonable if:

(1) The limited partner seeks the information for a purpose reasonably related to the partner's interest as a limited partner;

(2) The limited partner makes a demand in a record received by the limited partnership, describing with reasonable particularity the information sought and the purpose for seeking the information; and

(3) The information sought is directly connected to the limited partner's purpose.

(c) Not later than ten (10) days after receiving a demand pursuant to subsection (b), the limited partnership shall inform in a record the limited partner that made the demand of:

(1) What information the partnership will provide in response to the demand and when and where the partnership will provide the information; and

(2) The partnership's reasons for declining, if the partnership declines to provide any demanded information.

(d) Whenever this chapter or a partnership agreement provides for a limited partner to vote on or give or withhold consent to a matter, before the vote is cast or consent is given or withheld, the limited partnership shall, without demand, provide the limited partner with all information that is known to the partnership and is material to the limited partner's decision.

(e) Subject to subsection (j), on ten (10) days' demand made in a record received by a limited partnership, a person dissociated as a limited partner may have access to information to which the person was entitled while a limited partner if:

(2) The person seeks the information in good faith; and

(3) The person satisfies the requirements imposed on a limited partner by subsection (b).

(f) A limited partnership shall respond to a demand made pursuant to subsection (e) in the manner provided in subsection (c).

(g) A limited partnership may charge a person that makes a demand under this section reasonable costs of copying, limited to the costs of labor and material.

(h) A limited partner or person dissociated as a limited partner may exercise the rights under this section through an agent or, in the case of an individual under legal disability, a legal representative. Any restriction or condition imposed by the partnership agreement or under subsection (j) applies both to the agent or legal representative and to the limited partner or person dissociated as a limited partner.

(i) Subject to Section 79-14-704, the rights under this section do not extend to a person as transferee.

(j) In addition to any restriction or condition stated in its partnership agreement, a limited partnership, as a matter within the ordinary course of its activities and affairs, may impose reasonable restrictions and conditions on access to and use of information to be furnished under this section, including designating information confidential and imposing nondisclosure and safeguarding obligations on the recipient. In a dispute concerning the reasonableness of a restriction under this subsection, the partnership has the burden of proving reasonableness.

(a) A limited partner shall discharge any duties to the partnership and the other partners under the partnership agreement and exercise any rights under this chapter or the partnership agreement consistently with the contractual obligation of good faith and fair dealing.

(b) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (a), a limited partner does not have any duty to the limited partnership or to any other partner solely by reason of acting as a limited partner.

(c) If a limited partner enters into a transaction with a limited partnership, the limited partner's rights and obligations arising from the transaction are the same as those of a person that is not a partner.

§ 79-14-306. Person erroneously believing self to be limited partner.

(a) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (b), a person that makes an investment in a business enterprise and erroneously but in good faith believes that the person has become a limited partner in the enterprise is not liable for the enterprise's obligations by reason of making the investment, receiving distributions from the enterprise, or exercising any rights of or appropriate to a limited partner, if, on ascertaining the mistake, the person:

(1) Causes an appropriate certificate of limited partnership, amendment, or statement of correction to be signed and delivered to the Secretary of State for filing; or

(2) Withdraws from future participation as an owner in the enterprise by signing and delivering to the Secretary of State for filing a statement of negation under this section.

(b) A person that makes an investment described in subsection (a) is liable to the same extent as a general partner to any third party that enters into a transaction with the enterprise, believing in good faith that the person is a general partner, before the Secretary of State files a statement of negation, certificate of limited partnership, amendment, or statement of correction to show that the person is not a general partner.

(c) If a person makes a diligent effort in good faith to comply with subsection (a)(1) and is unable to cause the appropriate certificate of limited partnership, amendment, or statement of correction to be signed and delivered to the Secretary of State for filing, the person has the right to withdraw from the enterprise pursuant to subsection (a)(2) even if the withdrawal would otherwise breach an agreement with others that are or have agreed to become co-owners of the enterprise.

Present similar provisions are found in current § 79-14-401, above.

§ 79-14-402. General partner agent of limited partnership.

(a) Each general partner is an agent of the limited partnership for the purposes of its activities and affairs. An act of a general partner, including the signing of a record in the partnership's name, for apparently carrying on in the ordinary course the partnership's activities and affairs or activities and affairs of the kind carried on by the partnership binds the partnership, unless the general partner did not have authority to act for the partnership in the particular matter and the person with which the general partner was dealing knew or had notice that the general partner lacked authority.

(b) An act of a general partner which is not apparently for carrying on in the ordinary course the limited partnership's activities and affairs or activities and affairs of the kind carried on by the partnership binds the partnership only if the act was actually authorized by all the other partners.

For present similar provisions relating to dissociation as a general partner, see § 79-14-603.

§ 79-14-403. Limited partnership liable for general partner's actionable conduct.

(a) A limited partnership is liable for loss or injury caused to a person, or for a penalty incurred, as a result of a wrongful act or omission, or other actionable conduct, of a general partner acting in the ordinary course of activities and affairs of the partnership or with the actual or apparent authority of the partnership.

(b) If, in the course of a limited partnership's activities and affairs or while acting with actual or apparent authority of the partnership, a general partner receives or causes the partnership to receive money or property of a person not a partner, and the money or property is misapplied by a general partner, the partnership is liable for the loss.

For present similar provisions, see §§ 79-14-404, 79-14-405 and 79-14-406.

§ 79-14-404. General partner's liability.

(a) Except as otherwise provided in subsections (b) and (c), all general partners are liable jointly and severally for all debts, obligations, and other liabilities of the limited partnership unless otherwise agreed by the claimant or provided by law.

(b) A person that becomes a general partner is not personally liable for a debt, obligation, or other liability of the limited partnership incurred before the person became a general partner.

(c) A debt, obligation, or other liability of a limited partnership incurred while the partnership is a limited liability limited partnership is solely the debt, obligation, or other liability of the limited liability limited partnership. A general partner is not personally liable, directly or indirectly, by way of contribution or otherwise, for a debt, obligation, or other liability of the limited liability limited partnership solely by reason of being or acting as a general partner. This subsection applies:

(1) Despite anything inconsistent in the partnership agreement that existed immediately before the vote or consent required to become a limited liability limited partnership under Section 79-14-406(b)(2); and

(2) Regardless of the dissolution of the partnership.

(d) The failure of a limited liability limited partnership to observe formalities relating to the exercise of its powers or management of its activities and affairs is not a ground for imposing liability on a general partner for a debt, obligation, or other liability of the partnership.

(e) An amendment of a certificate of limited partnership which deletes a statement that the limited partnership is a limited liability limited partnership does not affect the limitation in this section on the liability of a general partner for a debt, obligation, or other liability of the limited partnership incurred before the amendment became effective.

§ 79-14-405. Actions by and against partnership and partners.

(a) To the extent not inconsistent with Section 79-14-404, a general partner may be joined in an action against the limited partnership or named in a separate action.

(b) A judgment against a limited partnership is not by itself a judgment against a general partner. A judgment against a partnership may not be satisfied from a general partner's assets unless there is also a judgment against the general partner.

(c) A judgment creditor of a general partner may not levy execution against the assets of the general partner to satisfy a judgment based on a claim against the limited partnership, unless the partner is personally liable for the claim under Section 79-14-404 and:

(1) A judgment based on the same claim has been obtained against the limited partnership and a writ of execution on the judgment has been returned unsatisfied in whole or in part;

(2) The partnership is a debtor in bankruptcy;

(3) The general partner has agreed that the creditor need not exhaust partnership assets;

(4) A court grants permission to the judgment creditor to levy execution against the assets of a general partner based on a finding that partnership assets subject to execution are clearly insufficient to satisfy the judgment, that exhaustion of assets is excessively burdensome, or that the grant of permission is an appropriate exercise of the court's equitable powers; or

(5) Liability is imposed on the general partner by law or contract independent of the existence of the partnership.

§ 79-14-406. Management rights of general partner.

(a) Each general partner has equal rights in the management and conduct of the limited partnership's activities and affairs. Except as otherwise provided in this chapter, any matter relating to the activities and affairs of the partnership is decided exclusively by the general partner or, if there is more than one general partner, by a majority of the general partners.

(b) The affirmative vote or consent of all the partners is required to:

(1) Amend the partnership agreement;

(2) Amend the certificate of limited partnership to add or delete a statement that the limited partnership is a limited liability limited partnership; and

(3) Sell, lease, exchange, or otherwise dispose of all, or substantially all, of the limited partnership's property, with or without the good will, other than in the usual and regular course of the limited partnership's activities and affairs.

(c) A limited partnership shall reimburse a general partner for an advance to the partnership beyond the amount of capital the general partner agreed to contribute.

(d) A payment or advance made by a general partner which gives rise to an obligation of the limited partnership under subsection (c) or Section 79-14-408(a) constitutes a loan to the limited partnership which accrues interest from the date of the payment or advance.

(e) A general partner is not entitled to remuneration for services performed for the partnership.

HISTORY: Laws, 2015, ch. 453, § 1, eff from and after July 1, 2015.

§ 79-14-407. Rights to information of general partner and person dissociated as general partner.

(a) A general partner may inspect and copy required information during regular business hours in the limited partnership's principal office, without having any particular purpose for seeking the information.

(b) On reasonable notice, a general partner may inspect and copy during regular business hours, at a reasonable location specified by the limited partnership, any record maintained by the partnership regarding the partnership's activities, affairs, financial condition, and other circumstances, to the extent the information is material to the general partner's rights and duties under the partnership agreement or this chapter.

(c) A limited partnership shall furnish to each general partner:

(1) Without demand, any information concerning the partnership's activities, affairs, financial condition, and other circumstances which the partnership knows and is material to the proper exercise of the general partner's rights and duties under the partnership agreement or this chapter, except to the extent the partnership can establish that it reasonably believes the general partner already knows the information; and

(2) On demand, any other information concerning the partnership's activities, affairs, financial condition, and other circumstances, except to the extent the demand or the information demanded is unreasonable or otherwise improper under the circumstances.

(d) The duty to furnish information under subsection (c) also applies to each general partner to the extent the general partner knows any of the information described in subsection (b).

(e) Subject to subsection (j), on ten (10) days' demand made in a record received by a limited partnership, a person dissociated as a general partner may have access to the information and records described in subsections (a) and (b) at the locations specified in those subsections if:

(1) The information or record pertains to the period during which the person was a general partner;

(2) The person seeks the information or record in good faith; and

(3) The person satisfies the requirements imposed on a limited partner by Section 79-14-304(b).

(f) A limited partnership shall respond to a demand made pursuant to subsection (e) in the manner provided in Section 79-14-304(c).

(g) A limited partnership may charge a person that makes a demand under this section the reasonable costs of copying, limited to the costs of labor and material.

(h) A general partner or person dissociated as a general partner may exercise the rights under this section through an agent or, in the case of an individual under legal disability, a legal representative. Any restriction or condition imposed by the partnership agreement or under subsection (j) applies both to the agent or legal representative and to the general partner or person dissociated as a general partner.

(i) The rights under this section do not extend to a person as transferee, but if:

(1) A general partner dies, Section 79-14-704 applies; and

(2) An individual dissociates as a general partner under Section 79-14-603(6)(B) or (C), the legal representative of the individual may exercise the rights under subsection (c) of a person dissociated as a general partner.

(j) In addition to any restriction or condition stated in its partnership agreement, a limited partnership, as a matter within the ordinary course of its activities and affairs, may impose reasonable restrictions and conditions on access to and use of information to be furnished under this section, including designating information confidential and imposing nondisclosure and safeguarding obligations on the recipient. In a dispute concerning the reasonableness of a restriction under this subsection, the partnership has the burden of proving reasonableness.

§ 79-14-408. Reimbursement; indemnification; advancement; and insurance.

(a) A limited partnership shall reimburse a general partner for any payment made by the general partner in the course of the general partner's activities on behalf of the partnership, if the general partner complied with Sections 79-14-406, 79-14-409, and 79-14-504 in making the payment.

(b) A limited partnership shall indemnify and hold harmless a person with respect to any claim or demand against the person and any debt, obligation, or other liability incurred by the person by reason of the person's former or present capacity as a general partner, if the claim, demand, debt, obligation, or other liability does not arise from the person's breach of Section 79-14-406, 79-14-409, or 79-14-504.

(c) In the ordinary course of its activities and affairs, a limited partnership may advance reasonable expenses, including attorney's fees and costs, incurred by a person in connection with a claim or demand against the person by reason of the person's former or present capacity as a general partner, if the person promises to repay the partnership if the person ultimately is determined not to be entitled to be indemnified under subsection (b).

(d) A limited partnership may purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of a general partner against liability asserted against or incurred by the general partner in that capacity or arising from that status even if, under Section 79-14-105(c)(8), the partnership agreement could not eliminate or limit the person's liability to the partnership for the conduct giving rise to the liability.

HISTORY: Laws, 2015, ch. 453, § 1, eff from and after July 1, 2015.

§ 79-14-409. Standards of conduct for general partners.

(a) A general partner owes to the limited partnership and, subject to Section 79-14-901, the other partners the duties of loyalty and care stated in subsections (b) and (c).

(b) The fiduciary duty of loyalty of a general partner includes the duties:

(1) To account to the limited partnership and hold as trustee for it any property, profit, or benefit derived by the general partner:

(A) In the conduct or winding up of the partnership's activities and affairs;

(B) From a use by the general partner of the partnership's property; or

(C) From the appropriation of a partnership opportunity;

(2) To refrain from dealing with the partnership in the conduct or winding up of the partnership's activities and affairs as or on behalf of a person having an interest adverse to the partnership; and

(3) To refrain from competing with the partnership in the conduct or winding up of the partnership's activities and affairs.

(c) The duty of care of a general partner in the conduct or winding up of the limited partnership's activities and affairs is to refrain from engaging in grossly negligent or reckless conduct, willful or intentional misconduct, or knowing violation of law.

(d) A general partner shall discharge the duties and obligations under this chapter or under the partnership agreement and exercise any rights consistently with the contractual obligation of good faith and fair dealing.

(e) A general partner does not violate a duty or obligation under this chapter or under the partnership agreement solely because the general partner's conduct furthers the general partner's own interest.

(f) All the partners of a limited partnership may authorize or ratify, after full disclosure of all material facts, a specific act or transaction by a general partner that otherwise would violate the duty of loyalty.

(g) It is a defense to a claim under subsection (b)(2) and any comparable claim in equity or at common law that the transaction was fair to the limited partnership.

(h) If, as permitted by subsection (f) or the partnership agreement, a general partner enters into a transaction with the limited partnership which otherwise would be prohibited by subsection (b)(2), the general partner's rights and obligations arising from the transaction are the same as those of a person that is not a general partner.

A contribution may consist of property transferred to, services performed for, or another benefit provided to the limited partnership or an agreement to transfer property to, perform services for, or provide another benefit to the partnership.

Present similar provisions are found in current § 79-14-501, above.

§ 79-14-502. Liability for contribution.

(a) A person's obligation to make a contribution to a limited partnership is not excused by the person's death, disability, termination, or other inability to perform personally.

(b) If a person does not fulfill an obligation to make a contribution other than money, the person is obligated at the option of the limited partnership to contribute money equal to the value, as stated in the required information, of the part of the contribution which has not been made.

(c) The obligation of a person to make a contribution may be compromised only by the affirmative vote or consent of all the partners. If a creditor of a limited partnership extends credit or otherwise acts in reliance on an obligation described in subsection (a) without knowledge or notice of a compromise under this subsection, the creditor may enforce the obligation.

July 1, 2015.] related to liability for contributions. Present similar provisions are found in current § 79-14-502, above.

§ 79-14-503. Sharing of and right to distributions before dissolution.

(a) Any distribution made by a limited partnership before its dissolution and winding up must be shared among the partners on the basis of the value, as stated in the required information when the limited partnership decides to make the distribution, of the contributions the limited partnership has received from each partner, except to the extent necessary to comply with a transfer effective under Section 79-14-702 or charging order in effect under Section 79-14-703.

(b) A person has a right to a distribution before the dissolution and winding up of a limited partnership only if the partnership decides to make an interim distribution. A person's dissociation does not entitle the person to a distribution.

(c) A person does not have a right to demand or receive a distribution from a limited partnership in any form other than money. Except as otherwise provided in Section 79-14-810(f), a partnership may distribute an asset in kind only if each part of the asset is fungible with each other part and each person receives a percentage of the asset equal in value to the person's share of distributions.

(d) If a partner or transferee becomes entitled to receive a distribution, the partner or transferee has the status of, and is entitled to all remedies available to, a creditor of the limited partnership with respect to the distribution. However, the partnership's obligation to make a distribution is subject to offset for any amount owed to the partnership by the partner or a person dissociated as a partner on whose account the distribution is made.

§ 79-14-504. Limitations on distributions.

(a) A limited partnership may not make a distribution, including a distribution under Section 79-14-810, if after the distribution:

(1) The partnership would not be able to pay its debts as they become due in the ordinary course of the partnership's activities and affairs; or

(2) The partnership's total assets would be less than the sum of its total liabilities plus the amount that would be needed, if the partnership were to be dissolved and wound up at the time of the distribution, to satisfy the preferential rights upon dissolution and winding up of partners and transferees whose preferential rights are superior to the rights of persons receiving the distribution.

(b) A limited partnership may base a determination that a distribution is not prohibited under subsection (a) on:

(1) Financial statements prepared on the basis of accounting practices and principles that are reasonable in the circumstances; or

(2) A fair valuation or other method that is reasonable under the circumstances.

(c) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (e), the effect of a distribution under subsection (a) is measured:

(1) In the case of a distribution as defined in Section 79-14-102(4)(A), as of the earlier of:

(A) The date money or other property is transferred or debt is incurred by the limited partnership; or

(B) The date the person entitled to the distribution ceases to own the interest or right being acquired by the partnership in return for the distribution;

(2) In the case of any other distribution of indebtedness, as of the date the indebtedness is distributed; and

(3) In all other cases, as of the date:

(A) The distribution is authorized, if the payment occurs not later than one hundred twenty (120) days after that date; or

(B) The payment is made, if the payment occurs more than one hundred twenty (120) days after the distribution is authorized.

(d) A limited partnership's indebtedness to a partner or transferee incurred by reason of a distribution made in accordance with this section is at parity with the partnership's indebtedness to its general, unsecured creditors, except to the extent subordinated by agreement.

(e) A limited partnership's indebtedness, including indebtedness issued as a distribution, is not a liability for purposes of subsection (a) if the terms of the indebtedness provide that payment of principal and interest is made only if and to the extent that payment of a distribution could then be made under this section. If the indebtedness is issued as a distribution, each payment of principal or interest is treated as a distribution, the effect of which is measured on the date the payment is made.

(f) In measuring the effect of a distribution under Section 79-14-810, the liabilities of a dissolved limited partnership do not include any claim that has been disposed of under Section 79-14-806, 79-14-807, or 79-14-808.

HISTORY: Laws, 2015, ch. 453, § 1, eff from and after July 1, 2015.

§ 79-14-505. Liability for improper distributions.

(a) If a general partner consents to a distribution made in violation of Section 79-14-504 and in consenting to the distribution fails to comply with Section 79-14-409, the general partner is personally liable to the limited partnership for the amount of the distribution which exceeds the amount that could have been distributed without the violation of Section 79-14-504.

(b) A person that receives a distribution knowing that the distribution violated Section 79-14-504 is personally liable to the limited partnership but only to the extent that the distribution received by the person exceeded the amount that could have been properly paid under Section 79-14-504.

(c) A general partner against which an action is commenced because the general partner is liable under subsection (a) may:

(1) Implead any other person that is liable under subsection (a) and seek to enforce a right of contribution from the person; and

(2) Implead any person that received a distribution in violation of subsection (b) and seek to enforce a right of contribution from the person in the amount the person received in violation of subsection (b).

(d) An action under this section is barred unless commenced not later than two (2) years after the distribution.

§ 79-14-701. Nature of transferable interest.

A transferable interest is personal property.

HISTORY: Laws, 2015, ch. 453, § 1, eff from and after July 1, 2015.

Editor's Notes — A former § 79-14-701 [Laws, 1987, ch. 488, § 701; Laws, 2014, ch. 399, § 46, effective from and after January 1, 2015; Repealed by Laws, 2015, ch. 453, § 6, effective from and after July 1, 2015.] related to the nature of a partnership interest. Present similar provisions are found in current § 79-14-701, above.

§ 79-14-702. Transfer of transferable interest.

- (a) A transfer, in whole or in part, of a transferable interest:
 - (1) Is permissible;
 - (2) Does not by itself cause a partner's dissociation or a dissolution and winding up of the limited partnership's activities and affairs; and
 - (3) Subject to Section 79-14-704, does not entitle the transferee to:
 - (A) Participate in the management or conduct of the partnership's activities and affairs; or
 - (B) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (c), have access to required information, records, or other information concerning the partnership's activities and affairs.
- (b) A transferee has the right to receive, in accordance with the transfer, distributions to which the transferor would otherwise be entitled.
- (c) In a dissolution and winding up of a limited partnership, a transferee is entitled to an account of the partnership's transactions only from the date of dissolution.
- (d) A transferable interest may be evidenced by a certificate of the interest issued by a limited partnership in a record, and, subject to this section, the interest represented by the certificate may be transferred by a transfer of the certificate.
- (e) A limited partnership need not give effect to a transferee's rights under this section until the partnership knows or has notice of the transfer.
- (f) A transfer of a transferable interest in violation of a restriction on transfer contained in the partnership agreement is ineffective if the intended transferee has knowledge or notice of the restriction at the time of transfer.
- (g) Except as otherwise provided in Sections 79-14-601(b)(4)(B) and 79-14-603(4)(B), if a general or limited partner transfers a transferable interest, the transferor retains the rights of a general or limited partner other than the transferable interest transferred and retains all the duties and obligations of a general or limited partner.
- (h) If a general or limited partner transfers a transferable interest to a person that becomes a general or limited partner with respect to the transferred interest, the transferee is liable for the transferor's obligations under Sections 79-14-502 and 79-14-505 known to the transferee when the transferee becomes a partner.

Present provisions relating to the transfer of a transferable interest are found in current § 79-14-702, above.

§ 79-14-703. Charging order.

- (a) On application by a judgment creditor of a partner or transferee, a court may enter a charging order against the transferable interest of the judgment debtor for the unsatisfied amount of the judgment. A charging order constitutes a lien on a judgment debtor's transferable interest and requires the limited partnership to pay over to the person to which the charging order was issued any distribution that otherwise would be paid to the judgment debtor.

(b) To the extent necessary to effectuate the collection of distributions pursuant to a charging order in effect under subsection (a), the court may:

(1) Appoint a receiver of the distributions subject to the charging order, with the power to make all inquiries the judgment debtor might have made; and

(2) Make all other orders necessary to give effect to the charging order.

(c) Upon a showing that distributions under a charging order will not pay the judgment debt within a reasonable time, the court may foreclose the lien and order the sale of the transferable interest. The purchaser at the foreclosure sale obtains only the transferable interest, does not thereby become a partner, and is subject to Section 79-14-702.

(d) At any time before foreclosure under subsection (c), the partner or transferee whose transferable interest is subject to a charging order under subsection (a) may extinguish the charging order by satisfying the judgment and filing a certified copy of the satisfaction with the court that issued the charging order.

(e) At any time before foreclosure under subsection (c), a limited partnership or one or more partners whose transferable interests are not subject to the charging order may pay to the judgment creditor the full amount due under the judgment and thereby succeed to the rights of the judgment creditor, including the charging order.

(f) This chapter does not deprive any partner or transferee of the benefit of any exemption law applicable to the transferable interest of the partner or transferee.

(g) This section provides the exclusive remedy by which a person seeking, in the capacity of a judgment creditor, to enforce a judgment against a partner or transferee may satisfy the judgment from the judgment debtor's transferable interest.

For present provisions relating to actions by and against partnerships and partners, see § 79-14-405.

§ 79-14-704. Power to legal representative of deceased partner.

§ 79-14-810. Disposition of assets in winding up; when contributions required.

(a) In winding up its activities and affairs, a limited partnership shall apply its assets, including the contributions required by this section, to discharge the partnership's obligations to creditors, including partners that are creditors.

(b) After a limited partnership complies with subsection (a), any surplus must be distributed in the following order, subject to any charging order in effect under Section 79-14-703:

(1) To each person owning a transferable interest that reflects contributions made and not previously returned, an amount equal to the value of the unreturned contributions; and

(2) Among persons owning transferable interests in proportion to their respective rights to share in distributions immediately before the dissolution of the partnership.

(c) If a limited partnership's assets are insufficient to satisfy all of its obligations under subsection (a), with respect to each unsatisfied obligation incurred when the partnership was not a limited liability limited partnership, the following rules apply:

(1) Each person that was a general partner when the obligation was incurred and that has not been released from the obligation under Section 79-14-607 shall contribute to the partnership for the purpose of enabling the partnership to satisfy the obligation. The contribution due from each of those persons is in proportion to the right to receive distributions in the capacity of a general partner in effect for each of those persons when the obligation was incurred.

(2) If a person does not contribute the full amount required under paragraph (1) with respect to an unsatisfied obligation of the partnership, the other persons required to contribute by paragraph (1) on account of the obligation shall contribute the additional amount necessary to discharge the obligation. The additional contribution due from each of those other persons is in proportion to the right to receive distributions in the capacity of a general partner in effect for each of those other persons when the obligation was incurred.

(3) If a person does not make the additional contribution required by paragraph (2), further additional contributions are determined and due in the same manner as provided in that paragraph.

(d) A person that makes an additional contribution under subsection (c)(2) or (3) may recover from any person whose failure to contribute under subsection (c)(1) or (2) necessitated the additional contribution. A person may not recover under this subsection more than the amount additionally contributed. A person's liability under this subsection may not exceed the amount the person failed to contribute.

(e) If a limited partnership does not have sufficient surplus to comply with subsection (b)(1), any surplus must be distributed among the owners of transferable interests in proportion to the value of the respective unreturned contributions.

(f) All distributions made under subsections (b) and (c) must be paid in money.

§ 79-14-902. Derivative action.

A partner may maintain a derivative action to enforce a right of a limited partnership if:

- (1) The partner first makes a demand on the general partners, requesting that they cause the partnership to bring an action to enforce the right, and the general partners do not bring the action within a reasonable time; or
- (2) A demand under paragraph (1) would be futile.

§ 79-14-903. Proper plaintiff.

A derivative action to enforce a right of a limited partnership may be maintained only by a person that is a partner at the time the action is commenced and:

- (1) Was a partner when the conduct giving rise to the action occurred;
or
- (2) Whose status as a partner devolved on the person by operation of law or pursuant to the terms of the partnership agreement from a person that was a partner at the time of the conduct.

§ 79-14-905. Special litigation committee.

(a) If a limited partnership is named as or made a party in a derivative proceeding, the partnership may appoint a special litigation committee to investigate the claims asserted in the proceeding and determine whether pursuing the action is in the best interests of the partnership. If the partnership appoints a special litigation committee, on motion by the committee made in the name of the partnership, except for good cause shown, the court shall stay discovery for the time reasonably necessary to permit the committee to make its investigation. This subsection does not prevent the court from:

(2) Granting extraordinary relief in the form of a temporary restraining order or preliminary injunction.

(1) By a majority of the general partners not named as parties in the proceeding; or

(2) If all general partners are named as parties in the proceeding, by a majority of the general partners named as defendants.

(d) After appropriate investigation, a special litigation committee may determine that it is in the best interests of the limited partnership that the proceeding:

(1) Continue under the control of the plaintiff;

(2) Continue under the control of the committee;

(3) Be settled on terms approved by the committee; or

(4) Be dismissed.

(e) After making a determination under subsection (d), a special litigation committee shall file with the court a statement of its determination and its report supporting its determination and shall serve each party with a copy of the determination and report. The court shall determine whether the members of the committee were disinterested and independent and whether the committee conducted its investigation and made its recommendation in good faith, independently, and with reasonable care, with the committee having the burden of proof. If the court finds that the members of the committee were disinterested and independent and that the committee acted in good faith, independently, and with reasonable care, the court shall enforce the determination of the committee. Otherwise, the court shall dissolve the stay of discovery entered under subsection (a) and allow the action to continue under the control of the plaintiff.

§ 79-19-13. Articles of association.

Each association formed under this chapter must prepare and file articles of association, setting forth:

(a) The name of the association.

(b) The purposes for which it is formed.

(c) The place where its principal business will be transacted.

(d) The term for which it is to exist, if other than perpetual.

(e) The number of directors thereof, which must not be less than five (5) and may be any number in excess thereof, and the term of office of such directors.

(f) If organized without capital stock, whether the property rights and interest of each member shall be equal or unequal; and if unequal, the articles shall set forth the general rule or rules applicable to all members by which property right and interests, respectively, of each member may and shall be determined and fixed; and provision for the admission of new members who shall be entitled to share in the property of the association with the old members, in accordance with such general rule or rules. This paragraph of the articles of association shall not be altered, amended, or repealed except by the written consent of the vote of three-fourths ($\frac{3}{4}$) of the members.

(g) If organized with capital stock, the amount of such stock and the number of shares into which it is divided and the par value thereof. The capital stock may be divided into preferred and common stock. If so divided the articles of association must contain a statement of the number of shares of stock to which preference is granted and the number of shares of stock to which no preference is granted and the nature and definite extent of the preference and privileges granted to each.

The articles must be subscribed by the incorporators and acknowledged by one (1) of them before an officer authorized by the laws of this state to take and certify acknowledgments, and shall be filed and recorded in the Office of the Secretary of State.

§ 79-19-15. Amendments to articles of association.

(1) Any amendment to the articles of association must first be approved by a vote of not less than two-thirds ($\frac{2}{3}$) of all the members of the board of directors and then adopted by a vote representing a majority of all the members of the association.

(2) However, if a majority of the members are not present at a meeting of the members of the association to a proposed amendment that has been submitted, then those present shall recess the meeting to a time and place certain, but not sooner than three (3) weeks from the time of recess. Prior to the reconvening of the recessed meeting, notices shall be published each week for three (3) consecutive weeks in a newspaper of general circulation in the place where the principal office of the association is located. These notices shall state the time, place, and purpose of the recessed meeting. When the meeting reconvenes, the members present shall constitute a quorum, and may take action on the proposed amendment by a majority vote of those present, even if members present are fewer than a majority of the total membership of the association.

(3) Amendments to the articles of association when so adopted shall be certified to by the president and secretary of the association and shall be filed with the Secretary of State. Such certification and filing shall be conclusive evidence of the validity of such amendment.

The directors shall elect from their number a chairman or board president. The directors also shall elect a chief operating officer of the association, one or more vice presidents, a secretary and treasurer, none of whom need be directors or members of the association. The board may combine the two (2) latter offices and designate the combined office as secretary-treasurer. The treasurer may be a bank or any depository, and as such shall not be considered as an officer but as a function of the board of directors. In such case the secretary shall perform the usual accounting duties of the treasurer, excepting that the funds shall be deposited only as authorized by the board of directors.

Amendment Notes — The 2014 amendment inserted “chairman or board” following “from their number a”, “The directors also shall elect a chief operating officer of the association” preceding “one or more vice presidents”, and “The board” preceding “may combine the two (2)”; deleted “and” preceding “one or more vice presidents”, “They shall also elect” preceding “a secretary and treasurer”, “not” preceding “be directors or members”, and “and they” preceding “may combine the two (2)”; and substituted “none of whom” for “who” in the former first and second sentences.

§ 79-19-25. Stock, membership certificates, when issued; voting; liability; limitations on transfer and ownership.

When a member of an association established without capital stock has paid his membership fee, if required, in full he shall receive a certificate of membership.

No association shall issue stock to a member until it has been fully paid for.

Except for debts lawfully contracted between him and the association, no member shall be liable for the debts of the association to an amount exceeding the sum remaining unpaid on his membership fee.

No stockholder of a cooperative association shall own more than one-twentieth ($\frac{1}{20}$) of the common stock of the association or more than one-twentieth ($\frac{1}{20}$) of the preferred stock of the association enjoying voting rights, but any one (1) stockholder may own one-twentieth ($\frac{1}{20}$) of each class; and an association, in its bylaws, may limit the amount of common stock or of preferred stock enjoying voting rights which one (1) member may own to any amount less than one-twentieth ($\frac{1}{20}$) of such stock.

Each share of stock shall entitle the holder thereof to one (1) vote in the management of the association; provided, however, if authorized by the articles of association, classes of preferred stock may be issued without voting rights.

Preferred stock may be redeemable or retirable by the association on such terms and conditions as may be provided for by the articles of association and printed on the face of the certificate.

The bylaws shall prohibit the transfer of the common stock or of preferred stock enjoying voting rights to persons not engaged in the production of the agricultural products handled by the association, and such restrictions must be printed upon every certificate of stock subject thereto.

The association may at any time, except when the debts of the association exceed fifty percent (50%) of the assets thereof, buy in or purchase its stock at book value thereof as conclusively determined by the board of directors and pay for it in cash within one (1) year thereafter.

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. Authority.

Because an LLC lacked the authority to agree to dispose of its only asset via a deed in lieu of foreclosure, the appellate court agreed with the chancellor’s holding that no settlement agreement was reached by the parties. The appellate court found no evidence to indicate that the LLC’s members timely complied with the Revised Mississippi Limited Liability Company Act’s requirements necessary to authorize the LLC to dispose of its sole asset via a deed in lieu of foreclosure. Coast Plaza LLC v. RCH Capital LLC, 281 So. 3d 1125, 2019 Miss. App. LEXIS 266 (Miss. Ct. App. 2019).

§ 79-29-231. Appraisal rights.

(iii) Any other action to the extent provided by the certificate of formation or written operating agreement.

(b) An entitled person may not challenge a completed action for which appraisal rights are available unless such action:

(i) Was not effectuated in accordance with the applicable provisions of this chapter or the limited liability company's certificate of formation or operating agreement; or

(ii) Was procured as a result of fraud or material misrepresentation.

(4) Notice of appraisal rights. If a proposed action described in subsection (3) of this section is to be submitted to a vote, the meeting notice must state that the limited liability company has concluded that entitled persons are entitled to assert appraisal rights under this section and a copy of this section or a copy of the appraisal rights and procedures as provided in the written operating agreement, as applicable, must accompany the meeting notice sent to the entitled persons.

(5) Notice of intent to demand payment.

(a) If a proposed action requiring appraisal rights under subsection (3)(a) of this section is submitted to a vote, entitled persons who wish to assert appraisal rights with respect to any class or series of financial interests:

(i) Must deliver to the limited liability company before the vote is taken written notice of the person's intent to demand payment if the proposed action is effectuated; and

(ii) Must not vote, or cause or permit to be voted, any of the person's financial interests in favor of the proposed action.

(b) An entitled person who does not satisfy the requirements of subsection (5)(a) of this section is not entitled to payment under this section.

(6) Appraisal notice and form.

(a) If a proposed action requiring appraisal rights under subsection (3) of this section becomes effective, the limited liability company must deliver a written appraisal notice and form required by this subsection (6) to all entitled persons who satisfied the requirements of subsection (5) of this section.

(b) The appraisal notice must be sent no earlier than the date the action became effective and no later than ten (10) days after such date and must:

(i) Supply a form that specifies the date of the first announcement to entitled persons of the principal terms of the proposed action and requires the person asserting appraisal rights to certify: 1. whether the entitled person acquired ownership of the interests for which appraisal rights are asserted before that date; and 2. that the person did not vote for the transaction;

(ii) State:

1. Where the form must be sent and where certificates for certificated interests must be deposited and the date by which those certificates must be deposited, which date may not be earlier than the date for receiving the required form under subsection (6)(b)(ii)2 of this section;

2. A date by which the limited liability company must receive the form which date may not be fewer than forty (40) nor more than sixty (60) days after the date the subsection (6)(a) appraisal notice and form are sent, and state that the person shall have waived the right to demand appraisal with respect to the interests unless the form is received by the limited liability company by such specified date;

3. The limited liability company's estimate of the fair value of the financial interests;

4. That, if requested in writing, the limited liability company will provide to the person so requesting, within ten (10) days after the date specified in subsection (6)(b)(ii)2 of this section, the number of persons who return the forms by the specified date and the aggregate interests owned by them; and

5. The date by which the notice to withdraw under subsection (7) must be received, which date must be within twenty (20) days after the date specified in subsection (6)(b)(ii)2 of this section; and

(c) Be accompanied by a copy of this section or by a copy of the appraisal rights and procedures as provided in the written operating agreement, as applicable.

(7) Perfection of rights; right to withdraw.

(a) An entitled person who receives notice pursuant to subsection (6) of this section and who wishes to exercise appraisal rights must certify on the form sent by the limited liability company whether the entitled person acquired ownership of the person's financial interests before the date required to be set forth in the notice pursuant to subsection (6)(b) of this section. If an entitled person fails to make this certification, the limited liability company may elect to treat the entitled person's financial interests as after-acquired interests under subsection (9) of this section. In addition, an entitled person who wishes to exercise appraisal rights must execute and return the form and, in the case of certificated interests, deposit the entitled person's certificates in accordance with the terms of the notice by the date referred to in the notice pursuant to subsection (6)(b)(ii)2 of this section. Once an entitled person deposits that person's certificates or, in the case of uncertificated interests, returns the executed forms, that entitled person loses all rights as a member or owner of a financial interest, unless the entitled person withdraws pursuant to subsection (7)(b) of this section.

(b) An entitled person who has complied with subsection (7)(a) of this section may nevertheless decline to exercise appraisal rights and withdraw from the appraisal process by so notifying the limited liability company in writing by the date set forth in the appraisal notice pursuant to subsection (6)(b)(ii)5 of this section. An entitled person who fails to so withdraw from the appraisal process may not thereafter withdraw from the appraisal process without the limited liability company's written consent.

(c) An entitled person who does not execute and return the form and, in the case of certificated interests, deposit that person's certificates where required, each by the date set forth in the notice described in subsection (6)(b)(ii)2 of this section, shall not be entitled to payment under this subsection.

(8) Payment.

(a) Except as provided in subsection (7) of this section, within thirty (30) days after the form required by subsection (6)(b)(ii)2 of this section is due, the limited liability company shall pay in cash to those entitled persons who complied with subsection (7)(a) of this section the amount the limited liability company estimates to be the fair value of their financial interests, plus interest at the legal rate.

(b) The payment to each person pursuant to subsection (8)(a) of this section must be accompanied by:

(i) Financial statements of the limited liability company that issued the financial interests to be appraised, consisting of a balance sheet as of the end of a fiscal year ending not more than sixteen (16) months before the date of payment, an income statement for that year, a statement of changes in equity for that year, and the latest available interim financial statements, if any;

(ii) A statement of the limited liability company's estimate of the fair value of the financial interests, which estimate must equal or exceed the limited liability company's estimate given pursuant to subsection (6)(b)(ii)3 of this section;

(iii) A statement that persons described in this subsection (8) have the right to demand further payment under subsection (10) of this section and that if any such person does not do so within the time period specified therein, the person shall be deemed to have accepted the payment in full satisfaction of the limited liability company's obligations under this section.

(9) After-acquired interests.

(a) A limited liability company may elect to withhold payment required by subsection (8) of this section from any entitled person who did not certify that ownership of all of the entitled person's financial interests for which appraisal rights are asserted was acquired before the date set forth in the appraisal notice sent pursuant to subsection (6)(b)(i) of this section.

(b) If the limited liability company elected to withhold payment under subsection (9)(a) of this section, it must, within thirty (30) days after the form required by subsection (6)(b)(ii)2 of this section is due, notify all entitled persons who are described in subsection (9)(a) of this section:

(i) Of the information required by subsection (8)(b)(i) of this section;

(ii) Of the limited liability company's estimate of fair value pursuant to subsection (8)(b)(ii) of this section;

(iii) That they may accept the limited liability company's estimate of fair value, plus interest at the legal rate, in full satisfaction of their demands, or demand appraisal under subsection (10) of this section;

(iv) That those entitled persons who wish to accept the offer must so notify the limited liability company of the person's acceptance of the limited liability company's offer within thirty (30) days after receiving the offer; and

(v) That those entitled persons who do not satisfy the requirements for demanding appraisal under subsection (10) of this section shall be deemed to have accepted the limited liability company's offer.

(c) Within ten (10) days after receiving the entitled person's acceptance pursuant to subsection (9)(b) of this section, the limited liability company must pay in cash the amount it offered under subsection (9)(b)(ii) of this section to each person who agreed to accept the limited liability company's offer in full satisfaction of the person's demand.

(d) Within forty (40) days after sending the notice described in subsection (9)(b) of this section, the limited liability company must pay in cash the amount it offered to pay under subsection (8)(b) of this section to each entitled person described in subsection (9)(b)(ii) of this section.

(10) Procedure if entitled person dissatisfied with payment or offer.

(a) An entitled person paid pursuant to subsection (8) of this section who is dissatisfied with the amount of the payment must notify the limited liability company in writing of that person's estimate of the fair value of the financial interests and demand payment of that estimate plus interest at the legal rate less any payment under subsection (8) of this section. An entitled person offered payment under subsection (9) of this section who is dissatisfied with that offer must reject the offer and demand payment of the person's stated estimate of the fair value of the financial interests plus interest at the legal rate.

(b) An entitled person who fails to notify the limited liability company in writing of that entitled person's demand to be paid the entitled person's stated estimate of the fair value plus interest at the legal rate under subsection (10)(a) of this section within thirty (30) days after receiving the limited liability company's payment or offer of payment under subsection (8) or (9) of this section, respectively, waives the right to demand payment under this subsection (10) and shall be entitled only to the payment made or offered pursuant to those respective subsections.

(11) Court action.

(a) If an entitled person makes demand for payment under subsection (10) of this section which remains unsettled, the limited liability company shall commence a proceeding within sixty (60) days after receiving the payment demand and petition the court to determine the fair value of the financial interests and accrued interest at the legal rate. If the limited liability company does not commence the proceeding within the sixty-day period, it shall pay in cash to each the entitled person the amount the entitled person demanded pursuant to subsection (10)(a) of this section plus interest at the legal rate.

(b) The limited liability company shall commence the proceeding in the chancery court of the county where the limited liability company's principal office is located. If the limited liability company is a foreign limited liability company, it shall commence the proceeding in the county in this state where the principal office of the domestic limited liability company merged with the foreign limited liability company was located at the time of the transaction.

(c) The limited liability company shall make all entitled persons whose demands remain unsettled, whether or not residents of this state, parties to the proceeding as in an action against their interests, and all parties must be served with a copy of the complaint. Nonresidents may be served as otherwise provided by law.

(d) The jurisdiction of the court in which the proceeding is commenced under subsection (11)(b) of this section is plenary and exclusive. The court may appoint one or more persons as appraisers to receive evidence and recommend a decision on the question of fair value. The appraisers shall have the powers described in the order appointing them, or in any amendment to it. The entitled persons demanding appraisal rights are entitled to the same discovery rights as parties in other civil proceedings. There shall be no right to a jury trial.

(e) Each entitled person made a party to the proceeding is entitled to judgment: (i) for the amount, if any, by which the court finds the fair value of the entitled person's financial interests, plus interest at the legal rate, exceeds the amount paid by the limited liability company to the entitled person for such financial interests; or (ii) for the fair value, plus interest at the legal rate, of the entitled person's financial interests for which the limited liability company elected to withhold payment under subsection (9) of this section.

(12) Court costs and counsel fees.

(a) The court in an appraisal proceeding commenced under subsection (11) of this section shall determine all costs of the proceeding including the reasonable compensation and expenses of appraisers appointed by the court. The court shall assess the costs against the limited liability company, except that the court may assess costs against all or some of the entitled persons demanding appraisal, in amounts the court finds equitable, to the extent the court finds such persons acted arbitrarily, vexatiously, or not in good faith with respect to the rights provided by this subsection.

(b) The court in an appraisal proceeding may also assess the fees and expenses of counsel and experts for the respective parties, in amounts the court finds equitable:

(i) Against the limited liability company and in favor of any or all entitled persons demanding appraisal if the court finds the limited liability company did not substantially comply with the requirements of subsection (4), (6), (8) or (9) of this section; or

(ii) Against either the limited liability company or an entitled person demanding appraisal, in favor of any other party, if the court finds that the party against whom the fees and expenses are assessed acted arbitrarily, vexatiously, or not in good faith with respect to the rights provided by this subsection.

(c) If the court in an appraisal proceeding finds that the services of counsel for any entitled person were of substantial benefit to other persons similarly situated, and that the fees for those services should not be assessed against the limited liability company, the court may award to such counsel reasonable fees to be paid out of the amounts awarded the entitled persons who were benefited.

(d) To the extent the limited liability company fails to make a required payment pursuant to subsection (8), (9) or (10) of this section, the entitled person may sue directly for the amount owed and, to the extent successful, shall be entitled to recover from the limited liability company all costs and expenses of the suit, including counsel fees.

Editor's Notes — This section is set out above to correct errors in the section as it appears in the 2013 Replacement Volume 18 by adding the following subsection designations: (3), (5), (7), (8), (9), (10), (11) and (12).

§ 79-29-233. Action on an agreement to sell, lease, exchange or otherwise dispose of assets.

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. Acceptance of offer.

Record reflected that an LLC lacked the necessary authority to accept appellee's offer to accept a deed in lieu of foreclosure. Accordingly, the LLC could not validly accept appellee's offer, and there was no agreement for the chancellor to enforce. Coast Plaza LLC v. RCH Capital LLC, 281 So. 3d 1125, 2019 Miss. App. LEXIS 266 (Miss. Ct. App. 2019).

ARTICLE 3.

MEMBERS.

§ 79-29-301. Admission of members.

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

II. Under Former § 79-29-301.

6. Not a member.

Real property buyer was not a member of a limited liability company (LLC) because, under the unambiguous terms of an operating agreement, a $500,000 contribution was required to become a member; under former version of Miss. Code Ann. § 79-29-301, the LLC agreement did not have to be in force at the time of filing a certificate of formation. Moreover, all potential members of the LLC did not have to be accounted for at the time of the certificate's filing. Kilpatrick v. White Hall on MS River, LLC, 207 So. 3d 1241, 2016 Miss. LEXIS 83 (Miss. 2016).

§ 79-29-303. Withdrawal of member and expulsion of member.

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

ANALYSIS

1. In general.
2. Governance rights.

1. In general.

Members 3 and 4 could not expel members 1 and 2 (M1 and M2) under a limited liability company's (LLC) operating agreement for their alleged fraud, bad acts, or abandonment of their management duties, and as M1 and M2's membership had not been withdrawn under this section, M1 and M2 were still members of the LLC. In re Mid-South Bus. Assocs., LLC, 555 B.R. 565, 2016 Bankr. LEXIS 3383 (Bankr. N.D. Miss. 2016).

2. Governance rights.

Chancery court properly granted motions for summary judgment and declaratory judgment filed by a law firm and its individual members in a former member's action for interpretation of the firm's partnership agreements and related documents because, although the former member's withdrawal from the firm severed his statutory governance rights, he continued to have governance rights as outlined in and permitted by the dispute-resolution provision of the supplement agreement, including his participation in a majority vote on "any dispute or decision related to this agreement," and he was bound by the terms of the dispute-resolution provision and the resulting joint resolution. Sledge v. Grenfell Sledge & Stevens, PLLC, 263 So. 3d 655, 2018 Miss. LEXIS 504 (Miss. 2018).

ARTICLE 8.

DISSOLUTION.

§ 79-29-809. Winding-up.

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. Title to real property.

Real properties listed as being owned by debtor's LLC in a prior bankruptcy were not property of debtor's Chapter 13 estate under 11 U.S.C.S. § 541(a)(1) because under the statute debtor had not automatically obtained legal title to the properties upon the LLC's dissolution, so the properties were not protected from foreclosure. Netterville v. Planters Bank & Trust Co. (In re Netterville), — B.R. —, 2019 Bankr. LEXIS 2294 (Bankr. N.D. Miss. July 24, 2019).

§ 79-29-825. Reinstatement following administrative dissolution.

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. Reinstatement.

Limited liability company was not reinstated for the sole purpose of evading liability because it was reinstated after the homeowners filed their complaint; the statute is clear that the reinstatement relates back to the date of dissolution and any liability during this period is determined as if the dissolution never occurred. Miss. App. LEXIS 115 (Miss. Ct. App. Brown v. Waldron, 186 So. 3d 955, 2016 2016).

§ 79-29-831. Effect of dissolution.

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. In general.

Although a hospice care provider was a limited liability company that was administratively dissolved, the provider's appeal of the Mississippi Division of Medicaid's decision to demand that unsupported claims be repaid was allowed to proceed because the provider, by further appealing the decision, was not maintaining an action against Medicaid, but rather, continued to defend itself against Medicaid's administrative decision. Genesis Hospice Care, LLC v. Miss. Div. of Medicaid, 267 So. 3d 779, 2019 Miss. LEXIS 160 (Miss. 2019).

ARTICLE 10.

FOREIGN LIMITED LIABILITY COMPANIES.

Sec.
79-29-1021. Administrative revocation of registration of foreign limited liability company.

§ 79-29-1013. Transaction of business without registration.

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. Capacity to sue.

Circuit court properly dismissed a complaint filed by a Mississippi limited liability company (LLC) and denied its motion to substitute the parties because there were two LLCs—one was registered as a Louisiana LLC and the other as a Mississippi LLC—and, while the Mississippi LLC had capacity to file suit, it lacked standing to assert the breach of contract claim where it was not a party to the subject contract with the city, was not a legal entity when the work was performed under the contract, and was not a real party in interest that could be substituted as a party, and the Louisiana LLC had no statutory authority to file suit until years after the applicable three-year statute-of-limitations period had run. Nungesser In- du. LLC v. City of Jackson, — So. 3d —, 2019 Miss. App. LEXIS 587 (Miss. Ct. App. Dec. 10, 2019), cert. denied, — So. 3d —, 2020 Miss. LEXIS 296 (Miss. 2020).

Issue of whether a limited liability company (LLC) had standing had been waived, expressly or impliedly, by the parties because the question was not an issue of standing but of capacity, and the LLC's lack of capacity had been cured; the LLC reregistered as a foreign limited liability company in good standing with the Mississippi Secretary of State, and all parties accommodated re-registration pending appeal and consented to supplement the record regarding the LLC's continued existence. Jourdan River Estates, LLC v. Favre, 278 So. 3d 1135, 2019 Miss. LEXIS 345 (Miss. 2019).

§ 79-29-1021. Administrative revocation of registration of foreign limited liability company.

(1) The Secretary of State may commence a proceeding under Section

79-29-1023 to administratively revoke the registration of a foreign limited liability company authorized to transact business in this state if:

(a) The foreign limited liability company does not pay within sixty (60) days after they are due any fees imposed by this chapter or other law;

(b) The foreign limited liability company does not deliver its annual report to the Secretary of State within sixty (60) days after it is due;

(c) The foreign limited liability company is without a registered agent in this state for sixty (60) days or more;

(d) The foreign limited liability company does not notify the Secretary of State within sixty (60) days that its registered agent has been changed or that its registered agent has resigned;

(e) The Secretary of State receives a duly authenticated certificate from the Secretary of State or other public official having custody of corporate records in the state or country under whose law the foreign limited liability company is organized stating that it has been dissolved or ceased to exist as the result of a merger;

(f) The Department of Revenue notifies the Secretary of State that the limited liability company is delinquent in any payments or tax owed by the limited liability company to the State of Mississippi; or

(g) A misrepresentation has been made of any material matter in any application, report, affidavit, or other record submitted by the foreign limited liability company to the Secretary of State pursuant to this chapter.

(2) The Secretary of State may not administratively revoke a registration of a foreign limited liability company unless the Secretary of State sends the foreign limited liability company notice of the administrative revocation under Section 79-29-1023, at least sixty (60) days before its effective date, by a record addressed to its registered agent, or to the foreign limited liability company if the foreign limited liability company fails to appoint and maintain a proper agent in this state. The notice must specify the cause for the administrative revocation of the registration. The authority of the foreign limited liability company to transact business in this state ceases on the effective date of the administrative revocation unless the foreign limited liability company cures the failure before that date.

Amendment Notes — The 2020 amendment, effective June 23, 2020, in (1), added (f), redesignated former (f) as (g), and made a related change.

§ 79-29-1023. Administrative revocation of registration, procedure and effect.

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. Capacity to sue.

Issue of whether a limited liability company (LLC) had standing had been waived, expressly or impliedly, by the parties because the question was not an issue of standing but of capacity, and the LLC's

CHAPTER 35.

THE MISSISSIPPI REGISTERED AGENTS ACT

Sec.
79-35-5.	Appointment of registered agent.
79-35-6.	Listing of commercial registered agent.
79-35-9.	Change of name or address by noncommercial registered agent.
79-35-10.	Change of name, address, or type of organization by commercial registered agent.
79-35-19.	Designation of registered agent without consent; penalties and liabilities.

§ 79-35-5. Appointment of registered agent.

(a) A registered agent filing must state:

(1) The name of the represented entity's commercial registered agent;
or

(2) If the entity does not have a commercial registered agent, the name, address and email address of the entity's noncommercial registered agent.

(b) The appointment of a registered agent pursuant to subsection (a)(1) or (a)(2) of this section is an affirmation by the represented entity that:

(1) The entity has:

(A) Notified the agent of the appointment; and

(B) Provided the agent with a forwarding address as provided in Section 79-35-14; and

(2) The agent has consented to serve as such.

(c) The Secretary of State shall make available in a record as soon as practicable a daily list of filings that contain the name of a registered agent. The list must:

(1) Be available for at least fourteen (14) calendar days;

(2) List in alphabetical order the names of the registered agents; and

(3) State the type of filing and name of the represented entity making the filing.

HISTORY: Laws, 2012, ch. 382, § 5, eff from and after Jan. 1, 2013; Laws, 2021, ch. 323, § 1, eff from and after July 1, 2021.

Amendment Notes — The 2021 amendment, in (a)(2), inserted "and email address" and made a related change.

§ 79-35-6. Listing of commercial registered agent.

(a) An individual or a domestic or foreign entity may become listed as a commercial registered agent by filing with the Secretary of State a commercial registered agent listing statement signed by or on behalf of the person which states:

(1) The name of the individual or the name, type, and jurisdiction of organization of the entity; and

(2) The email address and address of a place of business of the person in this state to which service of process and other notice and documents being served on or sent to entities represented by it may be delivered.

(c) If the name of a person filing a commercial registered agent listing statement is not distinguishable on the records of the Secretary of State from the name of another commercial registered agent listed under this section, the person must adopt a fictitious name that is distinguishable and use that name in its statement and when it does business in this state as a commercial registered agent.

(d) A commercial registered agent listing statement takes effect on filing.

(e) The commercial registered agent listing statement must be accompanied by a list in alphabetical order of the entities represented by the person. The Secretary of State shall note the filing of the commercial registered agent listing statement in the index of filings maintained by the Secretary of State for each listed entity. The statement has the effect of deleting the address of the registered agent from the registered agent filing of each of those entities.

ANALYSIS

I. Under Current Law.

1. Service improper.
2. Service proper.

I. Under Current Law.

1. Service improper.

Circuit court erred in denying a limited liability company's (LLC) motion to set aside a default judgment because service through the Secretary of State was not proper since the corporation did not exercise reasonable diligence in attempting to serve the LLC's members prior to attempting service through the Secretary of State; the LLC did not waive its objection to improper service by entering an appearance or by participating in the judgment debtor exam because it was not defending the case. S&M Trucking, LLC v. Rogers Oil Co. of Columbia, Inc., 195 So. 3d 217, 2016 Miss. App. LEXIS 368 (Miss. Ct. App. 2016).

2. Service proper.

Circuit court had jurisdiction over a passenger's action against an airline because service of process was proper and sufficient; service of process on the airline's registered agent was sufficient to give the circuit court jurisdiction over the airline because the complaint specifically identified the former address of the airline's principal place of business, and the complaint should have dispelled any confusion as to the true identity of the airline. United Airlines, Inc. v. McCubbins, 262 So. 3d 536, 2018 Miss. App. LEXIS 188 (Miss. Ct. App. 2018), cert. denied, 260 So. 3d 797, 2019 Miss. LEXIS 46 (Miss. 2019).

§ 79-35-15. Jurisdiction and venue.

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. Venue.

Registered Agents Act effectively makes the location of a corporation's registered agent irrelevant to the venue analysis; because the Registered Agents Act excludes consideration of the location of a corporation's registered agent from the question of venue, the Mississippi Consumer Protection Act's venue statute provides no choice of venue for foreign corporations. Purdue Pharma L.P. v. State, 256 So. 3d 1, 2018 Miss. LEXIS 415 (Miss. 2018).

Registered Agents Act overruled Penn Nat'l Gaming, Inc. v. Ratliff, 954 So. 2d 427 (Miss. 2007) and its holding that a non-resident defendant "resides" in the county where its agent for service of process is located; as the statute provides, the address of a registered agent does not determine venue. Purdue Pharma L.P. v. State, 256 So. 3d 1, 2018 Miss. LEXIS 415 (Miss. 2018).

General venue statute for chancery court did not apply in the State's action against pharmaceutical manufacturers because the location of a foreign corporation's registered agent was irrelevant to determine venue; because the general venue statute for chancery court did not apply, and the general venue statute provided criteria that did not rely on the location of a registered agent, the trial court's reliance on the general venue statute was appropriate. Purdue Pharma L.P. v. State, 256 So. 3d 1, 2018 Miss. LEXIS 415 (Miss. 2018).

§ 79-35-19. Designation of registered agent without consent; penalties and liabilities.

In addition to other penalties, a person commits an offense if the person makes a false statement in a registered agent filing that names a person the registered agent of a represented entity without the person's written consent. The following penalties and liabilities shall apply with respect to a false statement in a registered agent filing made under this chapter that names a person the registered agent of a represented entity without the person's consent:

(1) Section 79-4-1.29 (Domestic Corporations); Section 79-4-15.30 (Foreign Corporations); Section 79-11-123 (Domestic Nonprofit Corporations); Section 79-11-385 (Foreign Nonprofit Corporations); Section 79-29-207 (Domestic Limited Liability Companies); Section 79-29-1019 (Foreign Limited Liability Companies); Section 79-13-1003 (Limited Liability Partnerships); Section 79-13-1106 (Foreign Limited Liability Partnerships); Section 79-15-129 (Foreign Investment Trusts); and Section 79-16-27 (Foreign Business Trusts).

(2) The Secretary of State may commence a proceeding to administratively dissolve the domestic entity or to revoke the foreign entity's certificate of authority or similar certificate as prescribed by Section 79-4-14.20 (Corporations); Section 79-4-15.30 (Foreign Corporations); Section 79-11-347 (Nonprofit Corporations); Section 79-11-385 (Foreign Nonprofit Corporations); Section 79-13-1003 (Limited Liability Partnerships); Section 79-13-1106 (Foreign Limited Liability Partnerships); Section 79-29-809 (Limited Liability Companies); Section 79-29-1011 (Foreign Limited Liability Companies); Section 79-14-811 (Limited Partnerships); Section 79-14-1010 (Foreign Limited Partnerships); Section 79-15-129 (Foreign Investment Trusts); and Section 79-16-27 (Foreign Business Trusts). Any entity that is administratively dissolved or whose certificate of authority is revoked pursuant to this paragraph shall not be reinstated unless it complies with the applicable statutory reinstatement requirements and unless it provides to the Secretary of State with its application for reinstatement a statement of appointment of registered agent signed by its appointed registered agent and an additional reinstatement fee of Two Hundred Fifty Dollars ($250.00), in addition to the applicable statutory reinstatement fee.

HISTORY: Laws, 2012, ch. 382, § 19; Laws, 2015, ch. 453, § 5, eff from and after July 1, 2015.

Amendment Notes — The 2015 amendment deleted "Section 79-14-207 (Domestic Limited Partnerships)" preceding "Section 79-15-129 (Foreign Investment Trusts)" near the end of (1); and in (2), substituted "Section 79-14-811" for "Section 79-14-809" and "Section 79-14-1010" for "Section 79-14-910" near the end of the first sentence.
